Mapping Urban Intelligence.

Responsable éditoriale , le Saturday 17 May 2014

The texts of this Traversal are position papers. They have been written in the prospect of a conference that will take place in July 2014, organised at Laval University, Quebec, by the Eidolon cartographic research network. The title of the conference will be Mapping Urban Intelligence. The principle of these pre-communications is to prompt a debate in the most open and informal way. Readers are invited to react...
